Work Moving Slowly in Both Branches of Congress.

Hill Brings the Silver Question Before the Senate.

Springer's Committee Preparing for the Ohio Election Inquiry.

Work for the Springer Committee.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—The Springer committee on expenditures in the department of justice which by order of the house is to conduct the investigation of the appointment and employment of deputy marshals in Cincinnati at the October election will get to work shortly. The investigation will be begun in Washington, where a number of witnesses will be examined, and then the committee will go to Cincinnati. The following witnesses have been summoned to appear and testify before the committee here: James N. Dunnelly, disbursing clerk general land office; Moses B. Wright, clerk in the pension office; E. C. Ford, also clerk in pension office, John Wright, postoffice department; Geo. McEltrich, ex-detective; Chas. Hurley, and Wm. Kannavaugh, all of Washington. These, it is claimed, were made deputies in Cincinnati on election day. Ex-Senator Powell Clayton of Arkansas will also be summoned. Several residents of St. Louis, local republicans, have been summoned, among them H. L. Logers, Henry Maulstre, and Barney Higgins.

Nominations and Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Nominations: Otis P. G. Clarke, Rhode Island, commissioner of pensions; Calvin B. Walker, Indiana, first deputy commissioner of pensions; Nosh P. Loveridge, Michigan, second deputy commissioner of pensions; Harrison, Pennsylvania, assistant commissioner of the general land office; Geo. B. Anderson, New York, Indian inspector; Stephen F. Wilson, Pennsylvania, associate justice supreme court of New Mexico; commissioners for Alaska, John G. Brady, of Alaska, to reside at Sitka, Geo. P. Ihrie, Pennsylvania, to reside at Wrangell, Chester Reeber, California, to reside at Ounalaska.

The president also sent in the names of a large number of persons appointed during the recess to various positions in the army, and registers of land offices and Indian agents.

Confirmations: Wm. P. Dunwoody, Iowa, member of the national board of health; Frank Hatton, Iowa, postmaster general; John Schuyler Crosby, New York, first assistant postmaster general.

Chinese Restriction.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—The bill introduced by Glasscock to declare the meaning of certain provisions of the Chinese restriction act, passed last session, provides that sections prohibiting the coming of Chinese laborers to the United States within a period of 10 years after the passage of the act shall not apply to Chinese laborers who were in the United States November 17th, 1880, or to those who came into the United States before the expiration of ninety days after the passage of the act to which the act of July last was amendatory and who have continued their residence therein. Any Chinese merchant residing in the United States shall have a right to demand and receive from the collector of the district within which he may reside, a certificate of identification similar to that prescribed to Chinese laborers.

Dissatisfaction in the Postal Service.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Delegates representing clerks of the postoffices throughout the country to-day called upon Postmaster General Hatton to lay before him a proposition to classify postoffice clerks and place them on an equality with clerks in other branches of the government service. The delegates brought with them the draft of a bill intended to secure those results, and the postmaster general suggested that they cause the bill to be introduced in congress, when he would pass an opinion on its merits.

To representatives of Philadelphia letter carriers who seek to secure the benefits of the eight-hour law, Hatton to-day formally responded that the department never held that the eight-hour law applied to letter carriers, and without considering the legal aspect of the case he was of the opinion that the department could not move in the matter without a clear definition of the act by congress.

A Demand for Simplicity.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Robinson, of New York, has prepared a resolution, which will be offered Monday, providing for return to simplicity of inaugural ceremonies as practiced by Jefferson. It prohibits the erection of triumphal arches and the display of bayonets in Washington on inauguration day, and provides that the chief justice shall call upon the president-elect and accompany him either on foot or in a plain carriage drawn by not more than two horses and without decorations or livery to the capitol where he shall take the oath and address such citizens as may be there to hear him.

Senate Committees.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Sheffield, the new senator from Rhode Island, has been appointed to membership on the committee on claims, mines and mining, revolutionary claims and woman's suffrage; Sabin to the committee examining the several branches of the civil service; Dawes, committee on naval affairs; Morgan, committee on fish and fisheries, and Manderson chairmanship of the committee on printing.

XVIII Congress.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Bills were introduced and referred:

By Morrison, relative to surplus revenue. The text is as follows:

Be it enacted, that the secretary of the treasury be and is hereby authorized and directed to apply surplus revenues at any time in the treasury in excess of $100,000,000, not otherwise appropriated, to the redemption of United States bonds and when any of said bonds are redeemable at the pleasure of the government it shall not be lawful to apply any portion of said surplus to the purchase of bonds at a premium.

By Dockery, to repeal all laws authorizing the appointment of special deputy marshals at polls and the appointment of supervisors of election.

By J. D. Taylor, of Ohio, to prohibit the removal of any honorably discharged soldier, sailor or marine or any widow or dependent relative of the same from any office in the civil service of the United States except for specified cause.

The house resumed consideration of the inter-state commerce bill.

Anderson supported the Reagan substitute, contending that it would furnish the people substantial protection against extortion of railroad companies, though he did not think its provisions stringent enough. He doubted whether they would be effectual in preventing the system of pooling which practically placed producers of the country at the mercy of Gould, Vanderbilt and Huntington. If attempts so successfully made heretofore by railroad capitalists should prevent legislation in the states, in this house or in the senate, if they should enter the supreme court to prevent just legislation, the people would damn them. Capital would then be brought face to face, not with the thinking men of the country, but with a mob. Capital itself had more at stake in securing equitable railroad legislation than farmers and producers had.

Shipley of Indiana, Calkins' successor, announces his emphatic approval of the object sought to be attained by the pending bill, and Reagan's substitute as compared with the measure reported by the committee. He doubted the propriety of creating a commission and conferring upon it power as great as that exercised by the greatest despot on earth, and he pointed out the danger that would surely follow concentration of that power in a few men.

Hopkins submitted a constitutional argument on the power of congress to legislate on the subject of inter-state commerce, maintaining the affirmative proposition, and proceeded to detail the evils which the measure now pending was designed to correct.

Without further action adjourned till Monday.

SENATE.

Bills were introduced and referred:

By Mitchell, granting a pension to General Grant.

Cameron, of Pennsylvania, submitted the following, which he desired to lie over and be printed:

WHEREAS, The shipping trade in American vessels is depressed and export trade in American products is languishing for want of a market that might be reached if shipping trade was in the hands of citizens of the United States, therefore

Resolved, That the committee on finance be, and is, hereby directed to inquire whether it be expedient to expend the surplus revenue of the United States or any portion thereof for the purpose of reviving the shipping and export trade by allowing rebate from tariff duties on foreign goods imported in ships built and owned in the United States and by allowing a premium on American grown products and articles of American manufacture exported in American vessels, and report by bill or otherwise.

Cameron will call up the resolution at an early day.

Hill of Colorado submitted the following:

Resolved, That in the existing depressed condition of industrial interests of the country and in the presence of the great fall which has taken place and is still in progress in wages of labor and prices of the products of farms, workshops and mines, the recommendations of the president and secretary of the treasury that the coinage of silver dollars and the issue of silver certificates be prohibited, are calculated to create alarm and thereby aggravate the difficulties of the situation; and to the end that the public mind may be quieted by the assurance that if the total volume of currency is not to be enlarged in correspondence with the increasing population and exchanges of the country, it shall not at least be reduced by suspending the coinage of silver dollars, the senate declares its opinion to be that no valid reason exists at the present time for imposing any new and additional restrictions upon either the coinage of silver dollars or the issue of silver certificates.

The resolution was laid over, and Hill will call it up at the first opportunity.

The bill providing national regulation of inter-state commerce was made special order for Thursday next. After executive session adjourned until Monday.

New Bills.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—Representative Hopkins' bill to establish the office of government architect provides that the president shall appoint a government architect to hold office four years, who shall receive an annual salary of dollars. Whenever it is wished to erect a public building he shall advertise for competitive plans and specifications, accompanied with estimates of cost, which shall be submitted together with the architect's own recommendations to a board composed of the secretary of the treasury, postmaster general, secretary of the interior and the attorney general. The plan approved by the board shall be carried out in the construction of the building, and no change shall be allowed except with the sanction of the board upon the recommendation of the government architect. The architect whose plans are adopted shall receive the usual compensation. The bill provides that the offices of supervising architect of the treasury and architect of the capitol shall cease to exist April 1st, '86.

Representative Thompson's bill to further secure the government against fraud in the sale of whiskey provides that for each package of distilled spirit deposited in a distillery bonded warehouse, and upon which a warehouse stamp is now required to be affixed by law, there shall be issued and delivered at the time of such deposit to the distiller a duplicate thereof. The package shall not be withdrawn and delivered to any person except the person who at the time of filing such request for such withdrawal shall deliver the duplicate stamp to the collector of the district in which the package is stored. When so returned the collector, after all government taxes are paid, shall cancel the stamps and return the same to the storekeeper in charge of the package returning the stamps for cancellation. The stamps when so cancelled shall be affixed to the head of the package opposite from the warehouse stamp, at the time and in the manner the tax-paid stamps are now affixed. Delivery by the storekeeper shall not be made until all charges for storage and other advances made by the distiller are repaid him by the holder and owner of the stamps.

The bill proposing an Arkansas river commission appropriates $600,000 to be applied in improvements from the mouth to the headwaters of the river, including improvement of the harbors at Pine Bluff, Little Rock, Dardenelle, Van Buren and Fort Smith.

A bill was introduced in the senate to-day by Gibson, directing the secretary of the treasury to cede to the board of administrators of Tulane university, Louisiana, the building and premises near New Orleans known as the United States marine hospital, the property to revert to the United States should the university cease to use it for educational purposes.

Washington Notes.

The Japanese minister of war and suite arrived in Washington yesterday.

The attorney general has appointed ex-Representative Alex R. Butler, of West Virginia, to be pardon clerk of the department of justice.

A bill to establish a court of appeals was introduced in the house yesterday by Oates. The same measure was introduced in the senate in 1881 by Davis of Illinois.

A number of democratic leaders in the house say no adjournment will be taken to give members an opportunity to attend the opening of the world's fair at New Orleans.

The electoral votes of several states were received by the president of the senate yesterday. The first which came by messenger was Pennsylvania; the first by mail was New Hampshire.

Swaim's Defense.

WASHINGTON, December 4.—In the Swaim court martial to-day counsel for the accused opened the line of defense that stock transactions between General Swaim and Bateman & Co. were illegal because there was no actual transfer of stock, and that any pretended claim of Bateman & Co. upon General Swaim for losses in these transactions could not be received in a court of law as no actual shares of stock ever came in Swaim's possession, neither actually nor constructively. Bateman was put on the stand, but the court adjourned before his testimony was fairly begun.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, December 4.—Money 1½ to 2, closing offered 1½; prime paper 4½ to 6; sterling exchange firm 4.81½, demand 4.84¾; governments steady; railways firm; state securities quiet. Speculation at the stock exchange opened firm and prices advanced ⅛ to ¼ per cent, but soon afterward a vigorous attack was made on Missouri Pacific by room traders and the stock dropped from 94½ to 91½. This unsettled the general list for a time and there was a decline of ¼ to 1 per cent, the latter Northwestern, which fell off to 88½. This stock was also affected by the poor showing of earnings for November. Before midday a firmer tone prevailed and there was an advance of ¼ to 1¼ per cent. Subsequently Chicago, Burlington & Quincy declined 1¾ to 121½ and the remainder of the list fell off ½ to ¾ per cent. In the last hour the market advanced, closing firm. Compared with last night, closing prices are ⅛ to 1¼ per cent lower for Canada Southern, Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Delaware & Hudson, Missouri Pacific, Michigan Central and Western Union, and ⅛ to 1½ per cent higher for Central Pacific, St. Paul, Rock Island, Lackawanna, Louisville & Nashville, Lake Shore, Kansas & Texas, Jersey Central, New York Central, Erie, Northern Pacific preferred, Pacific Mail and Union Pacific.

There was unusual activity in the mining market during the forenoon, and with the exception of Horn Silver, which was weak at 5.00 to 4.90, prices ruled steady. Sales included Amie at 4, Bodie 2.75, Bassick 3.50, Colorado Central 65, Little Chief 25, Eureka 2.80, Standard 60, Sutro Tunnel 12 regular and 13 for buyers' 30 and 60 day options, Union Consolidated 15, Sierra Nevada 1.25, Plymouth 15⅝, Consolidated Pacific 50 to 65, and Silver King 5.00.

The English Cannibals.

LONDON, December 4. The case of Captain Dudley and mate, of the wrecked yacht Mignonette, who killed the boy Parker to keep themselves alive, and against whom on November sixth a special verdict was found in accordance with the facts, were heard to-day by the full bench of the court of appeals. Lord Chief Justice Coleridge in pronouncing the decision of the court said all the judges agreed that the act of the prisoners amounted to murder and the conviction must be affirmed.

The court will pass sentence Tuesday, thus giving the prisoners time to move arrest of judgment. The court ordered the prisoners to surrender their bail. The judges throughout the hearing showed great horror for the act of which the prisoners are guilty and were unwilling to set a precedent which should allow such a crime to be considered otherwise than murder.

Mormonism in Arizona.

SAN FRANCISCO, December 4.—The Chronicle's Prescott, A. T., special says: There have been five polygamic convictions in this city within a week. In the first three cases, Tenney, Christopherson and Kemp, convictions were found on the evidence. Two cases were tried to-day, Elders Flake and Skousen, who plead guilty. This is regarded as settling the question of Mormon rule in Arizona. Sentences will be passed by Judge Howard to-morrow.

THE PRESIDENT-ELECT.

Cleveland Offers Little Hope for Hungry Democrats,

But Prefers to Establish the Party Solidly in Power.

His Presence Makes the Actors' Benefit a Success.

Cleveland's Plans.

NEW YORK, December 4.—A Washington special to the Evening Post says: A prominent democratic member of congress who has recently visited Governor Cleveland says the latter said to him: "I intend to resign on the sixth of January, and as Lieutenant Governor Hill will administer the executive office for the next year, I have turned the writing of messages over to him. After laying down the duties of governor I shall listen to whatever my democratic friends have to say. I shall divide my time between Albany and Buffalo until the day arrives to go to Washington. I intend to give due consideration to counsel of our party friends. It may be that when I enter the presidential office some things may not move as fast as some democrats wish, but I think it will be better to go slow and be sure. We cannot hope to avoid mistakes but if we proceed slowly we will make fewer mistakes than if we go with a rush." The member of congress with whom Cleveland talked says the governor will become president without any ambition for a second term; that he holds to the second term principle laid down in his letter of acceptance and declared that his great object is to so administer the government as to lay the foundation of long-continued democratic rule. The governor incidentally alluded to the report of a quarrel between him and Hendricks, saying that they did not in their conversation discuss politics and that the two men never parted more pleasantly. This congressman drew from his conversation with Cleveland that the latter has not yet made up his mind with regard to a single cabinet appointment. He is deferring these matters until he retires from the governorship.

The New York Senatorship.

NEW YORK, December 4.—Chairman Warren, of the republican state committee, and Andrew S. Draper, chairman of the executive committee, are still at the Gilsey house. According to the statement of Mr. Draper last night's conference was purely accidental, and at least a dozen gentlemen whose names appear in morning papers as having attended it were not present. He added: "There has been a very general feeling in the western part of the state that the senatorship should be given Mr. Warren, and there is a very kindly feeling towards him in all parts of the state. President Arthur, I understand, is entirely indifferent in the matter." To-day ex-Senator Platt, Congressman Burleigh and others of those of the conference friendly to Levi P. Morton's candidacy met in an office down town and had a caucus. Conkling was in the Gilsey house during the conference.

The Actors' Fund Benefit.

NEW YORK, December 4.—The actors' fund benefit at the Academy of Music this afternoon was one of the most successful affairs that ever occurred in New York. Much of the eclat belonging to it was of course due to the presence of Governor Cleveland, who on this occasion attended a public entertainment for a benefit the first time since his election to the presidency. The vast auditorium was liberally packed. Hundreds of persons entered the lobby only to be able to get within six feet of the inner doors. Every theatrical person of eminence in town secured a box. President-elect Cleveland had a cordial welcome at every station between Albany and New York. The president of the Actors' association and Mayor Edson and Mayor-elect Grace, and a great throng of people received Cleveland at the depot. The welcome in the academy was of the wildest kind. The president expressed a wish to meet the actors engaged in the several performances. Joe Jefferson, however, had then left for Philadelphia, and Irving and Miss Terry had gone to their hotel. A committee drove in hot haste to the Brevoort house and as quickly returned with Irving, who was presented to the president-elect and warmly grasped by both hands. Cleveland expressed regret at not meeting Terry and Jefferson. He returned to Albany at 5 o'clock. Police guarded Cleveland's box during his stay in the Academy, preventing either the entry of politicians or interviewers. The day's proceedings benefit the Actors' fund $10,000.

Cleveland's New York Trip.

ALBANY, December 4.—Grover Cleveland and party, consisting of his sister, Miss Cleveland, Private Secretary and Mrs. Lamont, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bleecker Banks and the Misses Banks, Miss Van Vechten, Hon. and Mrs. Erastus Corning, Miss Schieffelin and Col. Wm. P. Cassidy, left here on a special train in a private car at 11 o'clock this morning to attend the Actors' fund benefit in New York.

Cattle Disease.

DRESDEN, Ohio, December 4.—J. J. Inkalls farmer in this county has lost thirteen head of cattle from a disease supposed to be pleuro-pneumonia. The cattle came from Chicago last spring.

Pay for Patriots.

NEW YORK, December 4.—T. F. Mahan, editor of the Irish-American, informed a reporter for the Mail and Express that a society in America to raise an annual fund to pay Irish members of parliament will be formed. "We have on hand already $8,578 as a general fund collected to November 30, '81. This amount will go to assist Parnell and other Irish patriots in agitation of constitutional liberty for Ireland. The idea is to get $100,000 a year. Our purpose is not to have the society a political one in America. Any liberty-loving citizen can sign it who desires and upon the payment of $5 or $10 per annum.

The Fire Record.

BALTIMORE, December 4.—Early this morning fire in the stables of the Hall's Springs Passenger railway company destroyed the large building together with many of the company's cars and fifty horses. The flames started in the hay loft and spread so rapidly that only fifteen of the horses could be taken out. Only one car was removed. There were 68 horses in the stable when the fire was discovered. Loss $20,000; insurance $10,000.

NEWARK, N. S. December 4.—Fire to-day almost completely destroyed C. Fergenspans brewery on Freeman street. The loss will reach $100,000; partially insured.

A Church Scandal.

RIVERHEAD, Long Island, December 4. The wife of Rev. W. A. Downs eloped with Deacon G. Mitchell Terry, leaving two children aged two and years. She telegraphed Pastor Downs that she was "Happy with her dear Terry," and would never return to Riverhead. It is believed the couple have gone to Florida, where Terry has a sister who eloped some time ago with Captain Penny, leaving four children after her. Terry was active in church work.

Indicted for Fraud.

KANSAS CITY, December 4.—A Times Omaha special says: The United States grand jury to-day indicted the following persons for fraud in connection with the Otoe Indian land sales: Hon. N. K. Griggs, late consul to Chemnitz; Captain W. H. Ashby of Wyoming, a newspaper man; ex-Register Parker of the U. S. land office at Beatrice, and Wheeler the auctioneer and Barnes store keeper at the reservation. It is charged that the parties by collusion bought in the lands at a nominal figure.

Wages and Production Reduced.

PHILADELPHIA, December 4.—Shoemakers refusing to treat with manufacturers the latter have decided to close their shops Saturday, throwing out of work 3,000 hands. Thomas Taylor & Co., carpet manufacturers, have surrendered to the strikers, the loom fixers joining the strike.

SOUTH FRAMINGHAM, Mass., December 4.—Shoe manufacturers here are reducing wages and hours of labor.

BALTIMORE, December 4. Force and hours of labor are being reduced in shops of the B. & O. railroad.

Kentucky Lawlessness.

MT. STERLING, Ky., December 4.—Sheriff Day has arrested seven men charged with being members of the band of regulators who a few days ago killed J. G. Hughes in Rowan county. Two have confessed implicating ten or twelve.

On Tuesday Floyd Tolliver, a druggist of Farmers, Ky., was killed at Moorehead in a difficulty with John Martin.

Hendricks' War Record.

INDIANAPOLIS, December 4.—A delegation representing the Marion county democratic soldiers' and sailors' veteran association called on Vice President-elect Hendricks this morning and tendered their congratulations on the result of the recent election. In the course of his reply he alluded to attacks on his war record and took occasion to refute several slanders of that character.

China in Earnest.

LONDON, December 4. The Standard's Hong Kong dispatch says: The Chinese appear to have abandoned all hopes of mediation and determined upon a vigorous policy. Twelve men of war have been ordered to engage the French fleet and break the Formosa blockade. Twenty-four Germans are on the fleet. One commands a ship under the Chinese admiral.

Signs of Foul Play.

CAMBRIDGE, Md., Dec. 4.—The house of Caleb Hurly, in the southwestern section of Dorchester county, burned yesterday. In the ruins was found the body of Hurly, but no part of the head could be discovered. There is a suspicion of foul play. Hurly was a small farmer and on the preceding night was at a store in the neighborhood where he displayed some silver coin.

Uneasy Iron Men.

PITTSBURG, December 4.—The report that eastern furnace men contemplate a reduction of a dollar per ton in order to compete with southern iron is causing much uneasiness among Pittsburg iron men, who say that if the reduction is made they will also be compelled to reduce in order to hold their own trade.

Cut in Railroad Rates.

CHICAGO, December 4.—The war on passenger rates has been resumed through scalpers by Ohio river lines. Brokers were to-day selling tickets over all northern and southern lines at the following rates: Cincinnati $6, regular rate $8.85; Louisville $6, regular rate $9; Indianapolis $3 75, regular $7.50.

Test of Republicanism.

NEW YORK, December 4. The republican county committee adopted an amendment to the constitution declaring the fundamental test of the right of any person to be enrolled shall be that he voted for republican electors unless prevented by sickness, absence or other unavoidable cause.

An Asylum Outrage.

QUEBEC, December 4.—Excitement on the subject of mismanagement of the lunatic asylum at this place was intensified to-day by the announcement that an unfortunate girl patient in Beauport asylum came to her death very tragically yesterday in giving birth to a child.

French Protection.

PARIS, December 4.—A committee of deputies has decided to increase the duty upon foreign corn to two francs and forty centimes per centner; flour seven francs per barrel; oats one franc and five centimes per centner; barley, two francs per centner.

The Boston Launched.

CHESTER, Pa., December 4. The United States steamer Boston was successfully launched at Roach's ship yard to-day.

DENVER'S COUNCIL.

Chase's Theatre Spared by the Virtuous Aldermen.

A Considerable Deficit Found in Ex-Clerk Leimer's Accounts.

The Derry Murder Trial Under Way at Leadville.

Denver's Council.

DENVER, December 4.—The city council tonight, by a vote of twelve to four, defeated a resolution to revoke the license of Edward Chase, proprietor of the Palace theatre.

An appropriation of $300 was made for present use in sprinkling the streets.

Chairman Matthews, of the city hall investigating committee, submitted his report to the council. It states that an actual deficit of $8000 has been discovered in the accounts of ex-City Clerk Leimer, and that license stubbs representing nearly $7000 additional are missing. Suit will at once be commenced against Leimer and his bondsmen.

An ordinance was passed requiring the railroad companies operating in the city to build an elevated roadway over their tracks on Eighteenth street. It is the intention of the authorities to build an iron bridge over the Platte at this point. The work is to be done under the supervision of the city engineer and to be commenced within 60 days. The viaduct will cost in the neighborhood of $100,000.

The Derry Trial.

DENVER, December 4.—A Leadville Tribune Republican special says: A telegram announces the capture of Jacob Best, alias Jack Wade, and wife, at Newton, Kansas. Sheriff Becker started at once with a requisition.

The jury was empanelled at three o'clock this afternoon in the Derry murder case. The prosecution at once commenced with testimony which showed clearly that the murder of General Bearce was wilful and malicious. The defense waived its statement of the line of defense until the testimony for the prosecution was concluded. It is believed that it will be upon the self-defense or insanity dodge. The trial will be resumed in the morning.

Killed for Eighty Cents.

DENVER, December 4.—A Silverton News special says: News reached here to-day from Ash Fork, Arizona, by letter from Albuquerque, that Jim Marshall was killed at the former place, being riddled with 18 buckshot in a quarrel in his saloon about eighty cents. As Marshall and Tom Cain were partners in a gambling saloon this letter throws some doubt as to who was killed, Cain or Marshall, or both. When the telegram was received from Billy Leonard that Cain was killed, Editor Conduct wired Jim Marshall for particulars. No answer is received to this date. Marshall was proprietor of the Clipper theatre in Durango two or three years ago, and afterwards ran a variety show here. He went to the Coeur d'Alene during that excitement and was well known in the mining camps of Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona.

Colorado Lawyers.

DENVER, December 4.—The Colorado State Bar association closed its second annual session this evening. A large number of important subjects were discussed and important amendments to the judicial articles of the constitution to be proposed at the next meeting of the legislature, including a modification of the jury system and the abolition of the present fee system throughout the state. A special meeting to prepare legislative enactments is to be held in January.

Strike Against Reduction.

DENVER, December 4.—Fifty men employed in F. M. Davis' iron foundry on the west side struck to night against a reduction in wages of 10 per cent, ordered to go into effect to-morrow morning. The men claim that Mr. Davis has made some losing contracts which he hopes to make profitable by reducing wages.

Union Pacific Earnings.

BOSTON, December 4. Earnings of the Union Pacific railroad, whole system, for October were $3,661,000, a decrease of $296,000 from the same month in 1883. Expenses were $1,177,000, a decrease of $296,000.

Lost at Sea.

ST. JOHN'S, N. F., December 4.—Four schooners and all hands are reported lost on the west coast in the terrible gale of Saturday night.

The semi-centennial of the Delta Upsilon fraternity was called to order at the Fifth Avenue hotel in New York yesterday. General Brooks of Illinois presided. Thirty-six delegates were present representing seventeen colleges. A hundred members of the fraternity not delegates were also present.

A performance for the benefit of the actors' fund was given last evening at Haverly's theatre, Chicago; receipts $1,714. Barrett, Januschek, Aimee, Fay Templeton, the Madison Square Co., Leavitt's Specialty Co. and Callendet's minstrels appeared.

The plenary council held two sessions yesterday. Sunday's session will close the largest and most important Catholic council ever held in the United States.

FRANCEVILLE AGAIN

To the Editor of the Gazette

Last Sunday you published an account of the conviction, for ballot stuffing, of the judges who served two years ago at Franceville. This year an outrage, hardly less disgraceful, was perpetrated. The only difference between the two is that legal voters were prevented from voting this year and two years ago the ballot box was stuffed with illegal votes. In neither case was there a fair expression of the opinion of the legal voters. Why were not the judges responsible for this outrage punished?

FRANCEVILLE VOTER

The above letter requires a little statement of facts to make it plain. The county commissioners appointed the board of judges for the Franceville precinct as for other precincts. The duty of the judges was to meet on October 14th and 28th and November 3d, to give an opportunity for the legal voters to register. The same board also was to conduct the election of November 4th in that precinct and make proper returns. Now let us see what was done.

The board of judges met October 14th and registered if we remember correctly 20 names Other names were offered but not registered There seemed to be a disposition to register only legal voters and great care was used For this reason but few of the miners were registered on this day.

The time for the next meeting was October 28th. Only one member of the board was present. Several voters were on hand and wished to be registered. The other members of the board did not come and finally in accordance with the law legal voters were chosen to fill the vacancies of the absent ones. The new board organized about 4 30 in the afternoon It registered several names and when it adjourned that night there were some fifty names on the registration list

On November third the board of registration met for the last time On the ground that the members of the board on October 14th and 28th were not duly sworn, the board declared all registration on the e days illegal So that on November 3d, the situation was the same as if there had been no registration whatever on October 14th and 28th The hardship appears all the greater when we remember that on November 3d, only those can register who appear in person and swear to their eligibility. The names of those was registered on the 14th and 28th of October could not be put down Many of those men understanding that they were registered of course did not put in an appearance November 3d. When these men came to vote November 4th they found that they names had been taken off the register and they could not vote. This disenfranchised men who had been registered like Captain Givens, Mr. Strechin who is John Curr's brother in-law, and several ranchmen on their ranches and on the ranches of the Lawsons and Skinner & Ashley. It also disenfranchised several miners who went out hunting and were not notified as they might have been of the necessity of re registering The whole number registered on November 4th was only twenty four or probably about a third of the legal voters This was a pretty small number as compared with the registration of 1882 when nearly 300 names were enrolled There were about as many legal voters in 1884 as in 1882

In connection with this registration irregularity, we may add that the polls were not opened until 2 30 in the afternoon instead of at seven o'clock in the morning The only excuse was that the ballot box was broken the night before in transporting it to Franceville This was no good excuse for the delay A telegram could have been sent in the morning and an extra box sent out by the D & N O train. Had this been done the polls could have opened before ten in the morning But as it was they were not opened until nearly the middle of the afternoon

These are the simple facts and our readers can draw the inferences The voters at Franceville had only one out of three days to register, and that day was the most difficult of all Many voters, knowing they were registered either on October 14th or 28th, did not present themselves to be registered November 3d. The time of voting was reduced from a day of twelve hours to four hours and a half There was a great wrong done the legal voters of the precinct in the manner in which the registration and voting were conducted It is about as bad to deprive one legal voter of his right to vote as to allow an illegal vote to be cast. Whenever either is done, then the returns of the polls do not represent the will of the rightful voters

But we are asked why the parties responsible were not punished We cannot answer this Some voter who was disenfranchised like Captain Givens or Mr. Strechin both of whom were registered in October but whose names were struck off the list November 3d, should have gone before the grand jury and demanded an investigation It could then have been shown how much was due to culpable and how much to intentional carelessness Both should be punishable Certainly if a board of registration met October 14th and 28th the voters who registered themselves then should have voted November 4th It matters not whether the board was sworn or not It acted as a board and these men registered in good faith If the judges did not comply with the law, they, not the voters, should suffer for it. If this precedent were followed it would be an easy thing to throw out the vote of any in the precinct not in harmony with the politics of the board. It is a serious thing to deprive a citizen of the United States of his right to vote for president or any other officer. It should not be passed over lightly, whatever the motive was It has been claimed that the registry was changed in the interest of certain candidates However this may be the fact remains that several voters who registered were disenfranchised by the intentional or careless actions of the judges and there should be some punishment. Our correspondent may be able to do something in the matter when the grand jury meets next ng.

CLEVELAND AS A SON.

Sketch of His Life that Puts His Character in a Favorable Light.

The following sketch of the president elect was written by the Rev. Hamilton W. Pierson, D D, of Toledo, Ohio, an old friend of the Cleveland family. It puts Cleveland in a better light than anything ever said of him, and it is claimed is strictly true.

I made the acquaintance of the Rev Richard F Cleveland, father of the president-elect, in 1848, during the closing months of my three years in Union Theological Seminary, New York. He was at the time pastor of the Presbyterian church in Fayetteville, N Y, and came to the city with members of his family to secure the professional services of the late Dr. Detmold. For months we were sheltered by the same roof I would not, unadvised, self-prompted, and without the knowledge of another human being take the responsibility of revealing anything of all that I have known of the sacred privacies of that family during the intervening years, did I not know that with my countrymen the intensest partisanship soon yields to the highest patriotism, and every American is jealous of his country's honor, and glad of all that keeps it bright

The father of Governor Cleveland died in Holland Patent, Oneida county, N. Y, October, 1853 leaving a family of nine children, four of whom were younger than Grover who was then in his 17th year. Young as he was he secured a position as teacher in the New York institution for the blind, where he spent a year. The following fall he returned to his home, entered the village academy, and devoted himself to the further prosecution of his studies in the ancient languages. An older brother had graduated at college In the death of his father that pleasure was denied him In the following spring he went forth determined not only to make his own way in the world but to add to the comforts of the home he had left behind At the age of 19 he entered the law office of Bowen & Rodgers, of Buffalo, gentlemen prominent both in the legal profession and the democratic party in western New York

At the age of 21 he was admitted to the bar and soon employed as assistant district attorney in Erie county. During all his struggles for self support he never forgot the mother and little ones he had left behind, but, denying himself, shared his scanty earnings with them As business came rapidly to him from year to year, and the earnings of his early professional life increased, his bounties to his mother and those at home were constantly enlarged. During recent years his success at the bar has enabled him to enjoy the comforts and luxuries of life and to life in a style befitting his high position, but by voluntarily denying himself of these the closing years of the life of the mother, he so loved and adored (to whom he alluded with such touching pathos in his letter to Mrs. Henry Ward Beecher) were crowned with abundance and the most tender and loving care, and the children younger than himself enjoyed the advantages of the best institutions of learning; and as they have married and settled in life he has stood by them financially in the place of a generous father His oldest sister, the wife of the Rev. Lurotas P Hastings, D D, sailed for India with her husband the June preceding her father's death, where they have since labored as honored missionaries of the American board of commissioners for foreign missions.

Though so far away, she has never been forgotten by this brother. The missionary stipend has often been supplemented from his generous and ever open purse When four of their children, two sons and two daughters, came to this country he most naturally and cheerfully assumed for them the same anxious solicitude and generous care he had so long bestowed upon his own brothers and sisters.

The mother of Grover Cleveland was a native of England She possessed, in an eminent degree, the gentleness and the repose of manner so marked in the highest type of southern born natives In the home so generously provided for her her serene old age was happy and bright Here she welcomed her children and grandchildren, and to those from India she extended a generous and long continued hospitality. From that home she was borne to her grave but a short time before her son was elected governor of New York.

Since the death of his father, in 1853, his benefactions to his mother and all those her descendants have swelled to thousands of dollars. The Presbyterian church makes generous provision for her "disabled ministers and the widows and orphans of deceased ministers" For this purpose more than $131,000 was collected during the past year Though often urged, the sensitive spirit of Mrs. Cleveland shrunk from receiving this aid Her son, Grover, warmly sympathizing with her, urged her to decline it, and neither mother nor children have ever received a dollar from this fund.

Only recently I knelt in prayer at the dying bed of a warm, personal friend, a clergyman of the Protestant Episcopal church, but a few hours before he passed away. He told me then, as he had often told me before, of his great sorrow in leaving his wife and children without any adequate support. Could he, and the thousands of other clergymen who have died oppressed with a similar burden, have known that they would have a son with the noble impulses and generous heart of Grover Cleveland, their closing hours would have been less sad

Through my travels in the service of the American Bible society, the American Tract society, and my extended journeyings as an invalid in search of health, my acquaintance with the families of clergymen during the last forty years in the north south, east, and west, from ocean to ocean, has been exceptionally large but if in these United States any minister of the gospel has left a son, who, through so long a series of years, with such personal sacrifice and self-denial and so much anxious care, freely gave so large a part of the results of his laborious toil for the maintenance and comfort of a cherished mother, and for the sustenance, education and happiness of her children and grandchildren, I have yet to learn the fact. Naturally diffident, silent, secretive, and instinctively shrinking from a revelation of himself to others, I can well understand how greatly he will be startled by the statement of facts so little known outside the family circle. But it is due the American people after a campaign unparalleled for slander and falsehood that they should know what I have thus revealed

My first vote was cast in my native town in western New York for the Hon. William H Seward. As long as the whig party existed I voted with them, and then transferred my warmest sympathies and votes to the republican party. From 1838 to 1884 I never "scratched" but two names and those for county offices, my warm, personal friends But Nov. 4, with a conscious pleasure I never experienced before in exercising the right of suffrage, I deposited my ballot for Grover Cleveland

The Wool Market

A. M. Howland & Co. say that the tone of the market Thanksgiving week is generally a quiet one, but we were surprised at the large sales that have been made, the transactions amounting to 3,094,100 pounds of all kinds. At the same time manufacturers must have wool, and now, when prices are quite low, when it is difficult to realize cost for any kind on the market, it appears to us to be a good time for them to supply their wants. If postponed later in the season assortments are not likely to be so desirable. There is nothing now to notice about the market except that manufacturers are purchasing more wool at low prices, and this enables holders, who are ready to meet them at current rates, to reduce stocks. Others are indifferent about selling because there is no profit in the business, and the season so far has been quite unsatisfactory. After holding wool for some four or five months it is now difficult to get even cost for desirable lots, and this is the condition of the trade when it is known that no considerable supplies of foreign wool can be imported to compete with domestic at current rates. The latest telegrams from the London sales report a firm market there, and the advices from Australia indicate that very little wool, compared with previous years, will be imported from that point. At the same time manufacturers are running largely on fine wools, and medium grades are also attracting more attention. If there was any prospect of a favorable change in the goods market we feel that there would be quite a rush for wool, as stocks on the seaboard cannot be replaced from any point at present low prices. Manufacturers evidently feel that prices are as low as can reasonably be expected, and are disposed to stock up more freely. In interior markets there is no change, but there is very little wool that is desirable left in the interior. There is still considerable fall and poor spring wool at San Francisco, but no buyers. It is offered at low prices but fails to attract any attention, as the trade cannot see any profit in the article. It is difficult to find a buyer for it at any price and most of it is likely to come forward in the scoured state. The most marked feature of the trade the present week is the large sales of territory, Texas and other unwashed wools, but these sales have been made at low prices. The stock of territory wool appears to hold out well when we consider the large sales that have been made for some months past. Manufacturers feel that these wools are about the cheapest of any on the market, and considerable of the receipts the past five months have been desirable. The stock of desirable Texas wool has become quite reduced, but more or less fall Texas is still to come forward.

College Notes.

Examinations will begin on or about December 18th.

The Musical association will meet next Thursday evening, when the works and life of Handel will be considered.

Professor Stone is entertaining Professor T. C. Chamberlain of Beloit, Wis., who is connected with U. S. government surveys.

The attendance at the rink last College club night was quite large and everybody expressed themselves as having had an enjoyable time.

Mr. P. S. Halleck, of the class of '81, is teaching school in Kansas; C. C. Wright, of the class of '83, is following the same occupation in Iowa.

The metallurgical department opened last Monday. Mr. Franc O. Wood will act in the place of Professor Strieby who is now in Arizona but who is expected to return soon.

The Oratorical association will hold its annual meeting next Tuesday afternoon. As the election of officers will take place and other important business will come up for transaction it is desired that all the members of the association shall attend.

The programme of the literary society for this evening is as follows:

Critique.......... A. W. Thompson
Reading.......... H. H. Seldomridge
Recitation.......... J. D. Ellsworth
Music.......... Society quintette
Debate—Subject—Resolved, That in a college education the study of the ancient languages is more essential than the study of modern languages.

The public are invited to attend.

The faculty of Harvard college have been requested by a portion of the students to prohibit the playing of foot ball under the present system of rules. The Yale-Princeton game which took place in New York city on Thanksgiving day was said to be the most stubbornly contested, and the roughest game that has ever taken place. Several of the players received severe injuries from which it will take them some time to recover. Colorado Springs has had three games of this character within the last year or two, and although they were thought and seemed to be very rough yet they were nothing in comparison with the games of a similar character which were played in the east. Even in the games here several of the players have been injured, and in the last one played in April of this year one of the players was so unfortunate as to have his leg broken. It was then rumored that action would be taken by the faculty of the college to prohibit the playing of Rugby foot ball by the students in the future. Though such action was not taken, it is not improbable that if in the future the students exhibited any intention of playing that the faculty would prohibit them from doing so. The action taken by the faculty of Harvard college is doubtless the initiation step to a general prohibition of the game by all eastern colleges.

There will be a meeting to-night at the Congregational church to organize a prohibition league.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Nelville, the bigamist, was argued yesterday and overruled. Nelville was then sentenced to seven years hard labor in the penitentiary, being the full extent of the law.

Fab(?)ing Curiosity.

San Francisco Post.

The other day a mysterious-looking stranger appeared in Petaluma and remained five whole days without the inhabitants finding out his name, where he came from or his business. Even the bar-room loafers were baffled in their attempts to extract some definite information, and the entire town laid awake o' nights worrying over the matter. At last the general agitation grew to such a pitch that the sheriff volunteered to interview the stranger in behalf of the public weal. Approaching the taciturn visitor, as he sat in the office of the hotel, the functionary remarked: "Fine day, sir." "Is, eh?" said the stranger, dubiously. "Going to stay long in these parts?" "Just four days, two hours and thirty-one minutes longer," replied the other, consulting his watch and a time-table. "Then!—may-er-hem! may I ask what your business is?" persisted the sheriff, as the crowd gathered up closer. "Well, I don't wish it generally known," replied the stranger, confidently, "but I'm a Russian nihilist." "You don't mean it?" gasped the official. "Fact," replied the man, mournfully. "But-er-what brings you here?" asked the sheriff. "Well, you see, I was captured in St. Petersburg last month, and—you know how severe the government is on nihilists, don't you?" "Ah!—yes—of course; go on!" "Well, they sentenced me to twenty years in Siberia, or a week in Petaluma, and I was fool enough to choose Petaluma." And with a heavy sigh the condemned man drifted into dinner.

In cases of dyspepsia, debility, rheumatism, fever and ague, liver complaint, inactivity of the kidneys and bladder, constipation and other organic maladies, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a tried remedy, to which the medical brotherhood have lent their professional sanction, and which as a tonic, alterative and household specific for disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels has an unbounded popularity.

Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

With the new volume, beginning December, Harper's Magazine will conclude its thirty-fifth year. The oldest periodical of its type, it is yet, in each new volume, a new magazine, not simply it presents fresh subjects and new pictures, but also, and chiefly, because it steadily advances in the method itself of magazine making. In a word, no Magazine becomes more and more the faithful mirror of current life and movement. Leading features in the attractive programme for 1885 are: New serial novels by Constance Fenimore Woolson and W. D. Howells; a new novel entitled "At the Red Glove;" descriptive illustrated papers by F. D. Millet, R. Swain Gifford, E. A. Abbey, H. Gibson and others; Goldsmith's "She Stoops to Conquer," illustrated by Abbey; important papers on Art, Science, etc.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE

FOR 1885.

A PAPER DEVOTED TO AMERICAN INTERESTS.

LARGEST REPUBLICAN CIRCULATION IN AMERICA.

THE TRIBUNE begins the new subscription year with prospects unparalleled in its history. Its circulation for the seven days ending November 9, 1884, was as follows:

Monday, November 3	90,100
Tuesday, November 4	101,600
Wednesday, November 5	188,600
Thursday, November 6	167,100
Friday, November 7	160,600
Saturday, November 8	174,000
Sunday, November 9	120,000
Weekly, November 5, exclusive of all short term campaign subscriptions	145,910
Semi-weekly	38,800
Total number of Tribunes printed and sold during week ending November 9, exclusive of campaign subscriptions	1,202,110

Ninety-four tons of paper were used in printing the week's issues. This was of course an election week "spurt," which "broke the record" in New York. Settling back into its "steady gait," the Tribune's record stood on the following week:

Average daily circulation of the Daily Tribune, for the week ending Nov. 15, 1884	121,400
Weekly Tribune, Nov. 12, 1884	142,650
Semi-Weekly	36,600

During 1885 the Tribune will strive more zealously and hopefully than ever for its political faith. The return to power of the party that brought on the rebellion must make the coming year one of the most interesting in our history. The more the people know of how democrats deal with their government, the surer is republican success the next time; and the Tribune appeals to its friends to help spread such knowledge broadcast.

The Tribune gives the news fully, fairly and early; it is a safe and attractive paper for the family circle; and is the persistent advocate of work for American workmen, a great, paying home market for American grain and meat, the extension of our foreign trade, and the general protection of American interests. It favors every practical effort to check intemperance, and is always on the side of morality, reform, and progress. Its Weekly and Semi-Weekly edition contains notably complete and valuable Agricultural, Household, Literary and Juvenile departments, with serial stories, abundant correspondence, interesting miscellany, and some fun. Every member of the family, old or young, finds in it instruction and entertainment.

Every postmaster and club agent is invited to invited to form yearly clubs at once for the Tribune. The following premiums are offered in combination with subscriptions:

Unabridged Dictionary, both Webster's and Worcester's.

Wood's Household Practice of Medicine, 2 vols., illustrated, 810 and 942 pages.

The Library of Useful Knowledge, 15 vols., nearly 900 pages each, embracing Chambers' Encyclopedia, complete, with American additions.

The Waterbury watch, a popular and successful premium.

Ridpath's Illustrated History of the United States.

Specimen copies, show bills and circulars, with details of valuable premiums, will be sent, free, upon application, or can be had from your postmaster.

TERMS TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS.

WEEKLY, $1.25 a year; in clubs of ten, $1 a year, with extra copy to man sending club.

SEMI-WEEKLY, $2.50 a year; in clubs of ten, $1 a year, with extra copy to man sending club.

DAILY, with Sunday, $8.50; without Sunday, $7 per year.

SUNDAY TRIBUNE, $1.50 per year. Sunday's Tribune, Monday's, Wednesday's or Saturday's, can be subscribed for separately.

Counting postage, the Tribune costs about two cents a copy, all editions.

Address, simply, THE TRIBUNE, New York.

Harper's Young People.

AN ILLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

The serial and short stories in HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE have all the dramatic interest that juvenile fiction can possess, while they are wholly free from what is pernicious or vulgarly sensational. The humorous stories and pictures are full of innocent fun, and the papers on natural history and science, travel, and the facts of life, are by writers whose names give the best assurance of accuracy and value. Illustrated papers on athletic sports, games, and pastimes give full information on these subjects. There is nothing cheap about it but its price.

An epitome of everything that is attractive and desirable in juvenile literature.—Boston Courier.

A weekly feast of good things to the boys and girls in every family which it visits.—Brooklyn Union.

It is wonderful in its wealth of pictures, information, and interest.—Christian Advocate, N. Y.

The colored folks had exclusive control of the roller rink last night and from personal inspection they certainly did have a very gay time.

From what we learn Sheriff Dana is not liable to have as protracted an attack of sickness as was at first reported, and he is gradually improving.

We learn that the Republic has imported a metropolitan city-editor, from Philadelphia we believe. He has a peculiar faculty of discounting copy a thousand fold. Give him the diploma.

There seems to be no prospect for any attraction at the opera house for some time, unless the Troubadours conclude to throw off the collar placed about them by the Tabor management

According to the weather observations taken at Colorado college the maximum temperature yesterday was 35°, the minimum 30° and the velocity of the wind 114 miles For the preceding day the mean temperature was 47 5° and the mean barometer 23.774 inches.

What has the birth of a child at the Crawford house named Grover Cleveland Hahn to do with the fact that there was a meeting of the city council on Monday night? The Republic's plea on the face is conclusive proof of the charge made in the GAZETTE and it can be sustained.

The pastors of the different city churches are requested to give the following notice on Sunday next: The ladies from all the congregations are earnestly entreated to meet at the lecture room of the Presbyterian church on Wednesday, the 10th inst., at three o'clock p m to effect some organization for work among the poor as there are at present some distressing cases, which require immediate attention.

Mr. Alex. Bonnell and wife of New York were among the arrivals at The Antlers yesterday for a short sojourn. Mr Bonnell is quite well known in Colorado Springs, having spent a year or more here for his health about four years ago. His friends are pleased to know that he is back.

About nine o'clock yesterday morning there was an alarm of fire that promptly brought out the fire department. The occasion was found to be the burning of a small barn located in the alley near Pike's Peak and between Weber and Wahsatch. We understand that the loss will not exceed two hundred dollars.

A bazaar for the benefit of Grace Episcopal church will be held in the Carpenter block, corner of Kiowa and Tejon streets, on Friday and Saturday afternoons and the evenings of December 5th and 6th. A large number of useful and fancy articles will be displayed. Refreshments served. Admission 10 cents.

Court opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The proceedings were unimportant. The case of Henry Coby vs. The D. & R G. Extension company was set for trial to-day The case of J. W. Hayes vs C. F. Albrecht was set for trial Friday at 2 o'clock p. m The decision in the case of Hooke vs. Hell & Nichols was postponed until to day

Mr. E. P. Moon sends us the following record kept at Husted for November, 1884:

Cloudy two days, viz , 21st and 22d.
Average temperature, 38 7-12°.

What are we to do for coal is a question that is now agitating the minds of many of our citizens in case a cold snap should come. As is well known the coal miners in the state are on a strike and it is difficult to conceive what the outcome may be Already consumers are complaining that a sufficient supply cannot be obtained in case of emergency. We know of one or two cases in which persons of limited means owning teams have driven to Franceville for coal and have been refused it. This is perhaps on account of the protection guaranteed Colorado Springs agents. We also have it from good authority that from thirty to fifty persons can be seen every morning gathering the remnants left by the engines on the Rio Grand track, and frequently sneaking a lump from the chutes. Should we have a siege of cold weather, what will be the result?

THE CENTURY!
IN 1885.
A GREAT ENTERPRISE.

PAPERS ON THE CIVIL WAR.

The important feature of the CENTURY MAGAZINE for the coming year—indeed, perhaps the most important ever undertaken by the magazine will be a series of separate papers on the great battles of the war for the Union, written by general officers high in command upon both the federal and the confederate sides—General Grant (who writes of Vicksburg, Shiloh, and other battles) Generals Longstreet, McClellan, Beauregard, Rosecrans, Hill, Admiral Porter and others. The series opens in the November CENTURY with a graphically illustrated article on written by the confederate general, G T. Beauregard Brief sketches, entitled "Recollections of a Private," papers chronicling special events, descriptions of various auxiliary branches of the service, etc , will supplement the more important series by the various generals.

A strict regard for accuracy will guide the preparations of the illustrations, for which the CENTURY has at its disposal a very large quantity of photographs drawings, portraits, maps, plans, etc , hitherto unused The aim is to present in this series, not official reports, but commanding officers accounts of their plans and operations—interesting personal experiences which will record leading events of the war and possess, at the same time, a historical value not easy to be calculated.

FICTION.

In this line the CENTURY will maintain its prestige and furnish the best stories by American writers that can be secured In November begins

A NEW NOVEL BY W. D. HOWELLS,

author of "Venetian Days," "A Modern Instance," etc. This story deals with the rise of an American business man A novel by Henry James, a novelette by Grace Denio Litchfield, and short stories by "Uncle Remus," Frank R. Stockton, H. H. Boyesen, T. A. Janvier, H. H., Julian Hawthorne, and other equally well known writers will appear at various times

MISCELLANEOUS FEATURES.

Under this heading may be included a series of papers on the cities of Italy by W D Howells, the illustrations being reproductions of etchings and drawings by Joseph Pennell, a series on being an interesting group of papers by E. V. Smalley, Lieutenant Schwatka, Principal Grant, of Kingston, Ontario, and others descriptive of little-known regions papers on French and American art sculpture and painting, with some exquisite illustrations, papers on the first being by Professor Langley and others. Under architecture are included more of Mrs. Van Rensselaer's articles on churches, city and country houses, etc. Colonel George E. Waring, Jr., will describe

THE NEW NORTHWEST,

ASTRONOMY, ARCHITECTURE AND HISTORY,

PROGRESS IN SANITARY DRAINING;

E. C. Stedman, Edmund Gosse, and others will furnish literary essays; George W. Cable will contribute in various ways; several papers on sport and adventure will soon be published, and will write from time to time on outdoor subjects.

Readers of the CENTURY may feel sure of keeping abreast of the times on leading subjects that may properly come within the province of a monthly magazine. Its circulation is now about 140,000 monthly, the November number exceeding that figure. Subscriptions should date from this number, beginning the war series and Mr Howells' novel Price $4 00 a year, 35 cents a number. All booksellers and newsdealers sell it and take subscriptions, or remittance may be made to the publishers

A free specimen copy of the CENTURY will be sent on request Mention this paper.
